REGIONAL MEMORANDUM

No. 641.2024

REMITTANCE OF SALARY DEDUCTIONS AND GOVERNMENT SHARE OF RPSU-PAID TEACHERS AND PERSONNEL TO PHILHEALTH

TO: Assistant Regional Director
All Schools Division Superintendents
All Others Concerned

1. The Philippine Health Insurance Corporation (PHIC) issued Philhealth Circular No. 2023-0010 with the subject "Payment of Premium Contributions through the Online Payment Facility of the Electronic Premium Remittance System (EPRS)" and Philhealth Advisory 2024-0043 on "Payment of Premium Contributions through the Online Payment Facility of the Electronic Premium Remittance System (EPRS)" dated September 11, 2024. Copies of both documents are herein attached for your information.

2. As stated in the Philhealth Advisory 2024-0043, all over-the-counter premium payments from the employed sector shall no longer be accepted beginning September, 2024. Hence, the remittance of salary deductions and government share of RPSU-paid personnel to PhilHealth shall be done by the Division Offices effective payroll month of September, 2024.

3. It shall be the responsibility of the Division Offices to closely coordinate with the nearest PhilHealth Local Health Insurance Office regarding all matters concerning the remittances to be made. Division Offices should make sure that salary deductions and government share of these RPSU-paid teachers and personnel are remitted to PhilHealth before the deadline.

4. For information and strict compliance.

PHILHEALTH ADVISORYNo. 2024-0043

SUBJECT : Payment of Premium Contributions through the Online Payment Facility of the Electronic Premium Remittance System (EPRS)

To ensure compliance in the Ease of Doing Business and Efficient Government Service Delivery Act of 2018, the Philippine Health Insurance Corporation issued PhilHealth Circular No. 2023-0010 on the Payment of Premium Contribution through the Online Payment Facility of the Electronic Premium Remittance System (EPRS) Revision 1 that aims to streamline services in paying contributions of employers both in the private and government sectors.

To effectively implement this policy, all over-the-counter premium payments from the employed sector shall no longer be accepted at any Accredited Collecting Agent beginning September 2024. All employers are required to utilize the online payment facility in the EPRS for faster acknowledgement and immediate posting of their remittances.

For employers who were granted exemptions, over-the-counter payments shall be accepted exclusively at PhilHealth offices as supported by the Statement of Premium of Account (SPA) and their valid Certificate of Exemption. All payments made shall be on cash basis or thru Manager's Check only.

Further inquiries may be referred to the nearest PhilHealth Local Health Insurance Office or to the assigned PhilHealth Account Information Management Specialist (PAIMS).

PHILHEALTH CIRCULARNo. 12013 - 0010TO : ALL EMPLOYERS IN THE GOVERNMENT AND PRIVATE SECTORS*SUBJECT : Payment of Premium Contributions through the Online Payment Facility of the Electronic Premium Remittance System (EPRS) (Revision 1)*I. RATIONALE

PhilHealth is mandated to establish and maintain an updated membership and contribution database pursuant to the Universal Health Care Act.

Likewise, the Ease of Doing Business and Efficient Government Service Delivery Act of 2018 mandates for streamlining and improving the current systems and procedures of PhilHealth's services aimed at reducing processing time, cut bureaucratic red tape and eliminate corrupt practices.

To fulfill these mandates and to provide the utmost ease, convenience and security to all employers, the Corporation introduced the Electronic Premium Remittance System (EPRS) with an online payment facility where employers can manage and pay their premium remittance online anytime and anywhere so long as there are internet connections.

II. OBJECTIVES

The use of the EPRS online payment aims to provide faster acknowledgement of premium payments and immediate posting of employers' premium contributions. Moreover, the use of the EPRS online payment will resolve the prevalence of dishonored payment transactions and prolonged reconciliation status in the EPRS due to erroneous posting of payment information.

III. SCOPE

This PhilHealth Circular covers the payment of the premium contribution of Employers in the Government and Private Sectors thru the online payment facility of the Electronic Premium Remittance System (EPRS). Parallel to this, the Corporation shall allow exemption to this policy for employers located in areas with unstable internet connection and in provinces classified as Geographically Isolated and Disadvantaged Areas (GIDAs) and other justifiable reasons as determined by the PhilHealth Regional Offices (PROs).

IV. DEFINITION OF TERMS

- A. Accredited Collecting Agent (ACA) – any person, natural or juridical, accredited by the Corporation to receive, account and remit premium contributions of members.
- B. Advice of Check Issued and Cancelled (ACIC) – report prepared and submitted at least daily by an agency/entity to the Government Servicing Bank (GSB) to enable the payees to encash or negotiate the issued checks. The advice shall be promptly submitted to the GSB.
- C. Electronic Premium Remittance System (EPRS) – online platform that allows updating of employee list, premium remittance, and reporting of employee contribution to PhilHealth.
- D. Employer – a natural or juridical person who pays or compensates for services rendered by one or more individuals.
- E. Geographically Isolated and Disadvantaged Areas (GIDAs) – refers to identified communities by the Department of Health (DOH) or any authorized government agency with marginalized population physically and socio-economically separated from the mainstream society and characterized by:
1. Physical factors such as those isolated due to distance, weather conditions and transportation difficulties (island, upland, lowland, landlocked, hard to reach and unserved/underserved communities); and,
 2. Socio-economic factors such as high poverty incidence, presence of vulnerable sector, communities in or recovering from situation of crisis or armed conflict.
- F. Manager's Check - a check issued by the bank's manager upon the bank itself promising to pay to the payee or its order an amount certain in money at a certain date.
- G. Statement of Premium Account (SPA) – a billing statement generated using the Electronic Premium Remittance System (EPRS) that is required to be presented upon payment of premium contributions.

V. POLICY STATEMENTS

- A. Effective the applicable period of June 2020 and onwards, all premium contributions of employers and their employees in the Government and Private sectors shall be made thru the online payment facility of the EPRS.
- B. All Employers are required to enroll their EPRS account at any Accredited Collecting Agent (ACA) of choice with payment gateway/facility or pay through available digital wallets interlinked with EPRS to be able to remit premiums online. A complete list of all accredited collecting agents interlinked with EPRS online payment facility can be accessed through www.philhealth.gov.ph.
- C. Employers who cannot comply with the online scheme due to unstable internet connection, no available internet providers, located in areas classified as GIDAs or for any other justifiable reason may request for temporary exemption and submit a duly-accomplished Request for Exemption from Paying Premium Contribution through the Online Payment Facility of the EPRS (Annex A). The request and the corresponding supporting documents, such as a Certificate of No Available Internet Signal from the Barangay or Internet Provider, screen shot of weak internet signal, or any document to support the reason of the request may be submitted to the Local Health Insurance Office (LHIO), who shall then forward or endorse to the Collection Section (ColSec) of the PhilHealth Regional Office (PRO) for further evaluation, assessment and recommendation for approval or denial of the Regional Vice President (RVP). A Certificate of Exemption shall be issued by the concerned PRO to the requesting employer to be able to pay through over-the-counter in any LHIO or ACA.

D. The Certificate of Exemption (COE) shall be valid for a maximum of three (3) months upon the date of issuance to give ample time for the employer to facilitate enrollment in other available online payment facilities. The COE may be extended subject to approval of the RVP.

E. Over-the-Counter (OTC) payments at any PhilHealth Office shall also be allowed for the following:

1. During system downtime especially during deadlines. The employer shall present screenshots of the "system error" with the date and time stamps indicating when the system error occurred in the EPRS or from the ACAs online banking facility portal.
2. Payment of adjusted PhilHealth premiums of government employees with salary differentials and step increments thru List of Due and Demandable Accounts Payable with Advice to Debit Account (LDDAP-ADA) per Department of Budget and Management Circular Letter No. 2013-16.¹

Payment in the aforementioned instance shall be accepted through over-the-counter in LBP, DBP or PVB through auto-debit arrangement, on-us checks or any modes of payment applicable to government agencies following existing COA rules and regulations. After payment, the employer should visit any PhilHealth office for the issuance of the PhilHealth Official Receipt (POR) and ensure posting of the additional report.

3. Employers with additional newly-hired employees not previously reported, those with underpayments as a result of payroll validation and payment of arrears as supported by a Billing Statement.
4. Employers with pending request for exemption received by any PhilHealth Office within ten (10) days before the payment deadline. In this instance, employer may only pay their premium contribution in the PhilHealth Office where they submitted their request for exemption for validation purposes.
5. Employers with denied request for exemption that have thirty (30) days from receipt of denial to comply with the Online Payment Scheme. The employer is
